Aberystwyth Law School
Centre for the Study of Ageing, Abuse and Justice
Grade 5 - £21,843 – £24,565 per annum pro rata

To promote a flexible workforce, the University will consider applications from individuals seeking full time, part time, job share, or term time only working arrangements.

A Choice Support Worker is required for the major research project on Elder Abuse and Justice, which has received a grant of £890,000 from the Big Lottery. The post is part-time (0.6 fte) for a period of 12 months. The project is an exploratory three-stage intervention, aimed at providing a detailed insight into the factors that help older people establish positive, empowering relationships after experiencing abuse by family members. The project is based in Camarthenshire and Cardiff. However the post holder will work primarily in Camarthenshire. The Choice Support Worker will be community based and will work with older people and their families.

Training will be provided.

Potential applicants are welcome to contact, in confidence: Sarah Wydall (sww@aber.ac.uk – 07833 777 549). For further information on the Choice Project see <http://choice.aber.ac.uk/>
